

Please don't let NAB continue the spiraling decay of quality radio programming. Allowing XM & Sirius to provide the services & quality programming that they currently do will pressure the locals to keep their quality higher or continue to lose market share & revenues. Competition is wonderful for the consumers.